DIRECTOR

Dale Marples has 39 years of experience in the financial industry. He has provided outsourced financial management to the Omaha business community for the past 12 years, helping small businesses access the up-to-date information they need to make sound financial decisions. Dale specializes in developing business plans, improving cash flow management, providing financial analysis, and coaching businesses on a variety of issues.

EXPERIENCE

Dale served as National Bank Examiner for the Comptroller of the Currency for over three years. He has 19 years of experience as a commercial loan and executive officer for several commercial banks. Dale also assisted in organizing and founding a new bank in Omaha. His background includes hands-on experience with start-ups as well as monitoring business growth to help companies adhere to their business plans. Dale also has experience in the non-profit sector, serving as Director of Treasury and Budget for a $12mm non-profit organization.

Dale founded CFO Omaha, Inc. in 2001 to provide consultant CFO services and assist businesses with managing cash flow, projecting income and expenses, and improving the efficiency and security of business processes. CFO Omaha, Inc. merged with CFO Systems in June 2013 in order to provide improved CFO support services to the small business community.
